

Third Annual Summit on Preventing Youth Violence: Building Towards a Safe and Healthy Tomorrow

September 26>27, 2013
Sheraton Crystal City Hotel

AGENDA

Moderator: Theron Pride, Senior Advisor, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

September 26 (Unless otherwise listed, all events will take place in the Grand Ballroom.)

7:30 a.m. Registration Opens

8:30 a.m. Welcome/Opening Remarks

The Honorable Karol V. Mason, Assistant Attorney General, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

The Honorable Eric H. Holder, Jr., Attorney General of the United States, U.S. Department of Justice

The Honorable Cecilia Muñoz, Assistant to the President and Director of the Domestic Policy Council, The White House

9:00 a.m. Envisioning a Brighter Future for Our Young People: A Conversation with the Associate Attorney General and Community Youth Leaders

The Associate Attorney General will engage community youth leaders in a discussion about their roles and the important contributions they are making in their communities to ensure brighter futures for themselves and their peers by addressing the problem of youth violence. Youth participating in the discussion are from the communities involved in the Administration's violence prevention initiatives, including the National Forum, Defending Childhood Initiative, Community-Based Violence Prevention Program, and Striving To Reduce Youth Violence Everywhere (STRYVE).

Moderator: Theron Pride, Senior Advisor, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Panelists:

Robert Scates, Youth Representative, Chicago, IL

Brianna Winters, Youth Representative, Memphis, TN

Darren Alridge, Youth Representative, New Orleans, LA

Jamira Burley, Youth Representative, Philadelphia, PA

Fernanda Ocana, Youth Representative, Salinas, CA

Rebecca Esparza, Youth Representative, San Jose, CA

- 9:30 a.m. Why All of Us Are Involved: Messages from the Administration
Introductions: Robert L. Listenbee, Administrator, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice
Speakers:
 The Honorable R. Gil Kerlikowske, Director, White House Office of National Drug Control Policy
 Calvin Johnson, Ph.D., Deputy Assistant Secretary, Office for Research, Evaluation and Monitoring, Office of Policy Development and Research, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
 The Honorable Arne Duncan, Secretary, U.S. Department of Education
- 9:45 a.m. Greetings from Congress
 The Honorable Christopher S. Murphy, Senator, Connecticut, U.S. Senate
 The Honorable Robert C. Scott, Congressman, 3rd District of Virginia, U.S. House of Representatives
 The Honorable Chaka Fattah, Congressman, 2nd District of Pennsylvania, U.S. House of Representatives
- 10:00 a.m. Break
- 10:30 a.m. Taking a Comprehensive Approach: Forum Cities Reveal Plans for Prevention
 Leadership from Camden, Minneapolis, New Orleans, and Philadelphia will unveil their comprehensive plans to address youth violence that use not only enforcement but prevention, intervention, and reentry strategies.

Moderator: Geroma Void, Senior Policy Advisor, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice
Panelists:
 The Honorable Michael Nutter, Mayor of Philadelphia, PA
 The Honorable Dana Redd, Mayor of Camden, NJ
 Karen DeSalvo, Health Commissioner, New Orleans Health Department, New Orleans, LA
 Gretchen Musicant, Commissioner, Health Department, Minneapolis, MN
- 11:50 a.m. Sustaining a Comprehensive Approach: Forum Cities Discuss What It Takes
 Leadership from Boston, Chicago, Detroit, Memphis, Salinas, and San Jose will discuss what is involved with implementing and sustaining a comprehensive plan to address youth violence. Included in the discussion will be a look at how they are institutionalizing this work, aligning it with other federal initiatives such as the Defending Childhood Initiative, STRYVE, and Community-Based Violence Prevention Program, and promoting systemic change. The discussion will also explore how federal efforts are helping them achieve success and confront remaining challenges.

Moderator: Mary Lou Leary, Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice
Panelists:
 The Honorable A C Wharton, Jr., Mayor of Memphis, TN
 The Honorable Joe Gunter, Mayor of Salinas, CA
 Marie St. Fleur, Chief of Advocacy and Strategic Investments, Office of the Mayor, Boston, MA
 Evelyn Diaz, Commissioner, Department of Family and Support Services, Office of the Mayor, Chicago, IL
 Annie Ellington, Director, Youth Violence Prevention Initiative, Office of the Mayor, Detroit, MI
 Jose Salcido, Senior Policy Advisor, Public Safety, Office of the Mayor, San Jose, CA

12:40 p.m. Lunch (on your own)

Leaders from the Forum cities meet with representatives from the business and philanthropic community for a discussion regarding engagement and sustainability. [By Invitation Only]
Crystal Room 6

Site representatives from the Forum cities and communities involved in the Defending Childhood Initiative, STRYVE, and Community-Based Violence Prevention Program will discuss their work and opportunities for collaboration. [By Pre-Registration Only]
Crystal Room 3

Facilitators: Robin Delany–Shabazz, Associate Administrator, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice
Catherine Pierce, Senior Advisor, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

2:00 p.m. The Role Public Health Plays in Youth Violence Prevention

Introduction: Howard Spivak, M.D., Director, Division of Violence Prevention, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Speaker: Ileana Arias, Ph.D., Principal Deputy Director, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

2:15 p.m. Creating Thriving Communities that Promote Safety and Wellness

This presentation will focus on the Purpose Built Communities model that brings together community leaders and members from the business and philanthropic communities to plan and implement a holistic revitalization effort in neighborhoods facing serious economic decline. A growing number of communities are utilizing the Purpose Built model to break the cycle of intergenerational poverty and create healthy and sustainable neighborhoods. This presentation will explain how the model works and the effects it has on health, education, and public safety.

Presenter:

Carol R. Naughton, Senior Vice-President, Purpose Built Communities

2:45 p.m. Making Headlines that Matter: How Media Plays a Role in Youth Violence Prevention

What makes the news? What are people talking about on television, in newspapers, and social media? Why does it matter and how can these outlets be used effectively to promote positive social change in a community? Panelists will engage in an interactive discussion with audience participation about the role media plays in addressing youth violence.

Facilitator: Jeff Johnson, Journalist and Executive Editor, Politico365

Panelists:

Jamal Simmons, Principal, The Raben Group

Lori Dorfman, Director, Berkeley Media Studies Group

Stephen Handelman, Director, Center for Media, Crime and Justice, John Jay College of Criminal Justice

Sheneese Thompson, Undergraduate Leader, Howard University

Oswaldo Ruelas–Gomez, Youth Representative, San Jose, CA

3:45 p.m. Break

4:00 p.m.

Confronting the Challenges Related to Sustaining the Effort to Prevent Youth Violence: Concurrent Roundtable Discussions

Participants will break into groups to discuss topics identified as major challenges or needed strategies related to sustaining the effort to address youth violence and children's exposure to violence.

Roundtable 1: Primary Prevention

Grand Ballroom A

This roundtable will be a facilitated discussion with representatives from STYRVE and Forum cities to discuss how primary prevention can be integrated into a comprehensive youth violence prevention strategy. The presenters will illustrate the importance of a comprehensive approach that includes evidence-based programs and strategies at the individual, community, and policy level to prevent violence from occurring in the first place.

Facilitator: Howard Spivak, Director, Division of Violence Prevention, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Panelists:

Marci Hertz, Lead Health Scientist, Division of Violence Prevention, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Sheila Savannah, Division Manager, Houston Department of Health and Human Services

Catherine Fine, Director, Division of Violence Prevention, Boston Public Health Commission

Linda McGlone, Coordinator, STYRVE Salinas, Monterey County Health Department

Chris Gunther, Violence and Behavioral Health Program Lead, New Orleans Health Department

Roundtable 2: Faith-Based and Law Enforcement Partnerships

Crystal Room 2

This roundtable will emphasize the importance of law enforcement and the faith community working together to address the challenges of youth crime. The audience will experience the effectiveness of collaboration and building partnerships. Models of success will be used to show the value of shared resources, mutual capacity building, and results of outcome-based strategies that involve the community at large.

Facilitator: Reverend Keith Norman, Pastor, First Baptist Church Broad, Memphis, TN

Panelists:

Lieutenant Colonel Melvin Russell, Baltimore City Police Department

Kelly McMillin, Chief of Police, City of Salinas Police Department

Toney Armstrong, Director of Police Services, Memphis Police Department

Roundtable 3:

Street Outreach Programs: Cure Violence, Ceasefire, and Other Evidence-Based Programs

Crystal Room 3

Street outreach has emerged as an important component of comprehensive gang control strategies. However, most current street outreach programs have not been appropriately evaluated, and there is no consensus regarding best practices in street outreach or the combination of program activities that are most likely to be successful. This roundtable of outreach program providers will discuss best practices and lessons learned based on their experiences implementing street outreach.

Facilitator: Dennis Mondoro, Senior Policy Advisor, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Panelists:

Victor Gonzalez, Director of Program Services, Houston Mayor's Anti-Gang Office

Guillermo Cespedes, Gang Reduction and Youth Development, City of Los Angeles

Candice M. Kane, Chief Operating Officer, Cure Violence

Joe Mollner, Senior Director, Delinquency and Gang Initiatives, Boys and Girls Clubs of America

Angela Wolf, Associate Director of Research, National Council on Crime and Delinquency

Tyrone Parker, Executive Director, Alliance of Concerned Men

Eleuthera Lisch, Director, Alive & Free Outreach Program, YMCA of Greater Seattle

Roundtable 4:

Engaging the Community in Youth Mental Health and Violence Prevention

Crystal Room 4

Sustainability requires broad and lasting commitments from many community stakeholders. This roundtable will focus on how the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration Toolkit for Community Conversations About Mental Health and the National Dialogue on Mental Health can be used as models to draw a wider spectrum of the community into a discussion about youth violence and mental health. This discussion will include identifying ways to build on and strengthen existing community coalitions, grant-supported programs, and prior community engagement activities.

Facilitator: Wendie Veloz, Public Health Advisor, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

Panelists:

Carolyn Lukensmeyer, Executive Director, National Institute for Civil Discourse

Mary Jacksteit, National Partner Coordinator, Creating Community Solutions

Roundtable 5: Sustaining Youth Violence Prevention Strategies Through Collaborations
Crystal Room 5

This roundtable will focus on a universal approach for sustaining efforts to reduce and prevent youth violence through community collaborations. Presenters will express the challenges and accomplishments to reducing crime and to maintaining focus and participation for elected officials, community organizations, residents, and volunteers, as well as leveraging funding through private and local resources. Participants are encouraged to share their success stories as well as the challenges they face to “keep going!”

Facilitator: Carol Neylan, State Program Manager, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Panelists:

Alyson Parham, Founder and President, Partec Consulting
Cathy Weiss, Executive Director, Stoneleigh Foundation
Bill Gibbons, Commissioner, TN Department of Safety and Homeland Security; Chair of Operation: Safe Community

Roundtable 6: Youth Employment Strategies
Crystal Room 6

Representatives of the U.S. Department of Labor Job Corps and Office of Youth Services will provide an overview of training models, services, and relevant outcome data pertaining to youth employment. Each representative will share programmatic highlights, strategies for success, and lessons learned—particularly in Forum cities, and discuss opportunities for future Forum participant involvement.

Facilitator: Richard Morris, Project Coordinator, Youth Offender Initiatives, Division of Youth Services, U.S. Department of Labor

Panelists:

Marcus Gray, Division Chief, Educational Services, Office of Job Corps, U.S. Department of Labor
Tracy Bradshaw–Morris, Unit Chief, Division of Educational Services, U.S. Department of Labor
Gregory Willis, Program Analyst, RExo, YouthBuild, U.S. Department of Labor

5:20 p.m. Closing Remarks

Introduction: Robert L. Listenbee, Administrator, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Speaker:

Bryan Stevenson, Founder and Executive Director, Equal Justice Initiative

5:45 p.m. Adjourn for the day

September 27 (Unless otherwise listed, all events will take place in the Grand Ballroom.)

7:30 a.m. Registration Opens

8:30 a.m. A Better Seattle: The Value of Building Partnerships

Pete Carroll, Head Coach, Seattle Seahawks, Seattle, WA (via videotape)

8:45 a.m. Engaging Local Partnerships: Effective Community-Based Responses to Youth Violence

This panel will focus on building and maintaining effective and collaborative community-based partnerships between public and private organizations in response to youth violence and crime. Panelists will share the work and progress of their respective initiatives, with a particular focus on collaboration and building effective partnerships.

Moderator: Lyman Legters, Senior Director, Casey Family Programs, Senior Fellow, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Panelists:

Jack Calhoun, Director, California Cities Gang Prevention Network

Sheila Peterson, Grant Program Manager, State Street Foundation

Toya Randall, Senior Director of Community Initiatives, Casey Family Programs/Cities United

Julio Marcial, Program Director, California Wellness Foundation

Eleuthera Lisch, Director, Alive & Free Outreach Program, YMCA of Greater Seattle

Mariko Lockhart, Director, City of Seattle Youth Violence Prevention

10:15 a.m. Break

10:30 a.m. Concurrent Breakout Sessions: Effective Strategies for Sustaining a Comprehensive Approach to Address Youth Violence

Session 1: Using Built Environments to Prevent Youth Violence

Grand Ballroom A

Living in healthy, safe environments with amenities is necessary for the well-being of all families—particularly young people. This presentation will discuss how the built environment can be used both as a strategy and a platform for preventing youth violence. Presenters will describe how two key U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development programs—the Sustainable Communities Initiative and the Choice Neighborhoods Program—are implementing local strategies and efforts to transform distressed neighborhoods and communities into revitalized communities where all families can live, work, and play. Panelists will engage participants in a discussion on how these program models can be included in a comprehensive plan for violence prevention and overall youth engagement.

Facilitator: Maria-Lana Queen, HUD Liaison, Federal Interagency Youth Initiatives, Community and Supportive Services Grant Manager, Office of Public and Indian Housing, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

Panelists:

Lynnette McRae, Program Manager, Office of Sustainable Housing and Communities, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

Pamela Lawrence, Choice Neighborhoods Grant Manager, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

Reshma Mahendra, Public Health Advisor, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Session 2: Making the Case for a Comprehensive Approach: Storytelling Through Data
Grand Ballroom B

The National Forum involves the efforts of many partners working together on a range of strategies. To assess the effectiveness of their efforts, cities need a streamlined, standardized approach for monitoring public safety trends. These measurements will likely depend on law enforcement statistics, but cities have varying abilities to access and publicize law enforcement data. This workshop will focus on how the National Forum may be able to assist participating cities to conceptualize and generate useful crime indicators.

Facilitator: Dennis Mondoro, Senior Policy Advisor, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Panelist:

Jeffrey Butts, Director, Research and Evaluation Center, John Jay College of Criminal Justice

Session 3: Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS)
Crystal Room 2

This interactive workshop will provide Forum cities with an overview of the PBIS Framework and allow for questions about the PBIS TA Center resources and technical assistance available to them as they improve or expand PBIS implementation activities to address challenges of youth and gang violence. It will also create opportunities for cities to share their plans and discuss experiences implementing the PBIS framework and how these efforts fit into community prevention efforts.

Facilitator: David Esquith, Director, Office of Safe and Healthy Students, U.S. Department of Education

Panelists:

George Sugai, Professor, Director, Center for Behavioral Education and Research, University of Connecticut

Renee Bradley, Deputy Director, Research to Practice Division, Office of Special Education Programs, U.S. Department of Education

Session 4: Youth Leadership Development: Talented Tenth Youth Program
Crystal Room 3

This workshop exposes participants to the strategies used by the Talented Tenth Leadership Program. This prolific leadership program aligns leadership theory with standards in core academic areas and challenges participants to influence their peers, government, and economy as agents of change. Participants will learn how to create an academically based leadership program like the Talented Tenth.

Facilitator: Mark Roscoe, Senior Policy Advisor, Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships, U.S. Department of Justice

Panelists:

Mason West III, Director, Talented Tenth Leadership Program

Saahil Katyal, Consultant, Talented Tenth Leadership Program

Malia West, Consultant, Talented Tenth Leadership Program

Session 5: Building Sustainable Youth Violence Prevention Strategies Through Public/Private Collaborations

Crystal Room 4

This breakout session is for site representatives and business/philanthropic partners interested in developing and sustaining local partnerships. The discussion will be facilitated by the Forum Business and Philanthropy Workgroup and will center on the recently completed report of the workgroup entitled, “Involving the Philanthropic and Corporate Community in Violence Prevention Planning and Action.”

Facilitator: Lyman Legters, Casey Family Programs, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Session 6: Youth Re-Entrants: Challenges, Solutions, and Directions

Grand Ballroom C

This breakout session will present the barriers that youth re-entrants face. Distinguished re-entry practitioners and leaders will model solutions currently used to address challenges of youth crime and gang influence. There will be discussions on utilizing shared resources, mutual capacity building, youth mentoring, and outcome-based strategies, with an emphasis on collaboration as the most effective way for communities to prevent recidivism.

Facilitator: Ricco Hall, State Program Manager, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Panelists:

Julio Medina, Executive Director, Founder, and CEO, Exodus Transition and Community

Cynthia Robbins, Independent Consultant, Racial Justice Initiative

Josh Weber, Program Director of Juvenile Justice, Council of State Governments

Jenny Collier, Project Director, Robert F. Kennedy Juvenile Justice Collaborative, RFK Center for Justice and Human Rights, RFK Children’s Action Corps

Session 7: Navigating Information Sharing Across Agencies

Crystal Room 5

Sharing information across city agencies, especially in the aggregate form, is critical to the work of reducing and preventing youth violence. The purpose of the session is to help Forum cities better understand the laws, practices, and systems related to sharing data about youth. The session will present practical, essential steps for agency leaders to create strong information-sharing systems (such as convening leaders, using mapping and legal analysis, identifying key questions, conducting an inventory of existing data, developing memoranda of understanding, and defining roles for program and data staff and leadership groups).

Facilitator: John Rosiak, Education Development Center’s National Center for Mental Health Promotion and Youth Violence Prevention

Panelists:

Jennifer Maconochie, Director, Strategic Initiatives and Policies, Boston Police Department

Anne Marie Ambrose, Commissioner of the Department of Human Services, City of Philadelphia

Janey Rountree, Deputy Chief of Staff, Public Safety, City of Chicago

Session 8: Enhancing Law Enforcement Responses to Child Sex Trafficking and Children Exposed to Violence

Crystal Room 6

This interactive workshop will be for law enforcement and community partners who are interested in enhancing law enforcement identification and response to children exposed to violence, including juvenile victims of sex trafficking. It will provide an overview of two toolkits under development by the International Association of Chiefs of Police and partners including the Yale Child Study Center, New Haven Police Department, Charlotte–Mecklenburg Police Department, and FBI’s Violent Crimes against Children Section. These toolkits will promote the use of effective developmentally appropriate and trauma-informed strategies and practices by law enforcement. Also discussed will be a new organizational assessment tool that will enable law enforcement agencies to assess their current response to children exposed to violence as well as action plans for improvement.

Facilitators: Shania Kapoor, Fellow, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Kristie Brackens, Juvenile Justice Program Manager, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Panelists:

Kelly Burke, Program Manager, International Association of Chiefs of Police

Charles Newell, Major, Memphis Police Department

Malrie R. Shelton, Program Coordinator, Defending Childhood Initiative, Network for Overcoming Violence and Abuse, Shelby County Office of Early Childhood and Youth

Keisha Walker, Administrator, Shelby County Office of Early Childhood and Youth

12:00 p.m. Lunch (on your own)

Youth Leadership Discussion

Youth leaders are invited to discuss the activities they are engaged in to reduce violence in their communities. [By Pre-Registration Only]

Crystal Room 3

Facilitator: Theron Pride, Senior Advisor, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

1:30 p.m. How It All Fits Together: A Discussion About Shared Frameworks and Sustainability
Grand Ballroom

Through a guided presentation and interactive discussion, participants will address the importance of emphasizing primary prevention and understanding trauma, the impact trauma has on child and adolescent development, and what it means to be trauma informed. Participants will also discuss a proposed framework to prevent and reduce youth violence and promote child and youth well-being, and how using this framework across multiple systems can sustain the work and result in more positive outcomes for children, youth, and families.

Facilitator: Robin Delany–Shabazz, Associate Administrator, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Panelists:

Clare Anderson, Deputy Commissioner, Administration on Children, Youth and Families, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

Howard Spivak, Director, Division of Violence Prevention, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

3:00 p.m. Closing Remarks
Grand Ballroom

Robert L. Listenbee, Administrator, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Tiana Henry, 2013 National Ambassador from Detroit for the “Do the Write Thing Challenge,” Detroit, MI (Reading her essay: “The Truth About Youth Violence in My Life.”)

3:30 p.m. Adjourn